Kerry Adult Guidance and Information Service

About Us

The Kerry Adult Guidance and Information Service (KAGIS), is the part of the Kerry Education and Training Board, which offers a professional Adult Guidance and Information Service to eligible people in Kerry.

How can KAGIS help you?

There are two parts to KAGIS

- Information supports and
- Guidance counselling.

KAGIS offers impartial one-to-one

- access to an information officer,
- educational and training guidance, and
- career guidance,

to help people make informed educational, career, and life choices.

Information Supports

The KAGIS Information Officer can help you find information on:

- Education and training options
- Careers
- Funding and grants
- Other supports for learners.

The KAGIS Information Service is available to any adult living in Kerry.

KAGIS Information Centre

In our Information Centre there are client computers available as well as paper-based information and online information.

If you would like to talk with our Information Officer or would like to visit our Information Centre, please contact us on Tel. 066 7121300 or email: guidance@kerryetb.ie

Please note if you are going to visit KAGIS you are advised to arrange an appointment first otherwise we may not be able to see you on the day you drop in.
